

PIPELINE SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS HELP MEET ESG GOALS

PSMS is at the heart of pipeline good governance providing the risk management structure necessary to promote continuous improvement and minimize impacts to communities and the environment

What Is ESG?

- Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) goals help organizations meet their social responsibilities
- ESG helps organizations minimize their impact on the environment
- ESG helps organizations improve the social impact of their operations on their employees and surrounding communities
- ESG helps organizations govern their organizations ethically and effectively

What Is PSMS?

- Pipeline Safety Management Systems (PSMS) help companies systematically manage their complex operations
- PSMS assesses and manages risk
- PSMS reveals and improves safety performance
- PSMS and its 10 elements provide a mechanism for continuous improvement
- PSMS strengthens an organization's safety culture

ESG Components Paired with PSMS Elements

PSMS Helps ESG - General

PSMS Helps ESG Environmental

 PSMS goals of improved safety performance and risk mitigation lead directly to environmental gains

 Risk Management identifies, assesses, prevents and mitigates risks

 Operational Controls provide operating procedures, safe work practices, inspection and maintenance programs, and management of change

 Incident Investigation, Evaluation and Lessons Learned drives continuous improvement of performance

 Safety Assurance drives the audits, assessments, and evaluations necessary to know performance goals are achieved

 Establishing a strong safety culture through PSMS strengthens the overall organization's belief in its importance, acting as a unifying force to improve safety performance

PSMS Helps ESG Social

 Stakeholder Engagement provides a catalyst for ESG conversations with the public, employees, customers and investors

 Stakeholder Engagement is vital to interacting with the community

 Stakeholder Engagement helps a company find out what is important or concerning to stakeholders and how to respond to their needs

 Stakeholder Engagement and specifically external engagement informs the public on the company and its progress toward ESG goals

 Stakeholder Engagement and specifically internal engagement fosters a positive culture within the company

 Emergency Preparedness & Response helps a company minimize its impact on the surrounding community

 Competence, Awareness and Training improves the ability of employees to act responsibly

PSMS Helps ESG Governance

 Leadership & Management Commitment mirrors the ESG commitment to good Governance

 Management Review & Continuous Improvement provides the mechanisms needed to meet ESG Governance goals

 Management Review & Continuous Improvement ensures long-term sustainability of ESG efforts

 Documentation & Recordkeeping increases transparency toward ESG goals

 Management of change components of Operational Controls allows governance of sustains efforts over changing business landscape

 Risk Management allows leaders to know risks of their operations and govern their company accordingly

 Safety Assurance programs give confidence to leaders and stakeholders that the company is minimizing its impact to the public and environment